Atrion CEO Re-elected as 1nService Chairman

Tim Hebert will continue to lead international consortium of IT integrators.

Warwick, R.I. / Bellevue, W.A. – Feb. 1, 2010 – Atrion Networking Corporation, a leading provider of Information Technology and managed services across the North East, today announced its CEO, Tim Hebert, has been reelected as Chairman of Board of 1nService, a global consortium of advanced technology integrators. This will be Tim’s second term as Chairman.

In continuing his duties as Chairman, Tim will provide leadership to the organization, including leading the 1nService Board of Directors in the development and determination of 1nService strategies and objectives. As Chairman and guardian of the Board’s decision making process, Tim will promote the highest standards of integrity, probity and corporate governance throughout the organization. He will also continue to participate in and facilitate open dialogue between the 1nService Board, shareholders and members to assure the interests of the organization are effectively aligned and communicated. The collaborative 1nService model brings together IT providers across all verticals, specializations and geographic locations to offer its clients cutting edge technology solutions with comprehensive global reach and support. In the current 1nService community, there are more than 40 technology integrators with over 125 offices worldwide and $1.5 billion in collective sales.

“1nService is proud to welcome Tim Hebert into another term as the Chairman of the 1nService Board,” said Paul Cronin, CEO for 1nService. “Tim’s vision, leadership and industry expertise have helped to guide 1nService’s significant growth over the past two years, including our expansion into international markets. I speak on behalf of all of the 1nService Board and membership in saying we are looking forward to Tim’s leadership and continuing our achievements in the coming years.”

“The 1nService community has made great strides over the recent years,” said Tim. “Especially in a global recession, all involved have worked collaboratively and diligently to ensure not simply survival, but success and growth. I am excited to continue to work in such a unique community platform with these individuals, who I hold in the highest regards. I do not believe there is a single company in existence that can offer the level of geographic reach and technological service that the members of 1nService can.”
